

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF LINGUISTICS AND LANGUAGES

Volume 2, Number 1, 2010

S/No.	Contents	Authors	Pages
1.	The Grammatical Attitudinal and Discoursal Methods of Studying English Intonation.	Saidu O. Yahaya and Matthew Ewa	1-4
2.	The Effectiveness of using Literary Texts to Teach Language.	L. O. Nwokeneme	5-10
3.	Ontolinguistics in the Face of Shfits: A Survey of Anaku Dialect.	Ifeoman Obuasi	11-16
4.	Discovery, Assertion and Self-Realization in Recent Nigerian Migrant Feminist Fiction: The Example of Sefi Atta's Everything Good Will Come.	Ayo Kehinde and Joy Ebong Mbipon	17-27
5.	Monolingualism and National Unity: The Situation in Nigeria.	Obasi, Jame Chinelo	28-35
6.	Dissecting Bilingualism and Multilingualism in a Multilingual and Multicultural Anglophone Society.	Obieze, Juliana N.	36-41
7.	Current Issues in Multilingualism and Language Planning in Africa: Implications for Development.	Olushola Bamidele Are	42-48
8.	The Musician as a Teacher: A Study of Bongos Ikwue's Songs.	Ukah, Gabriel Oche	49-52
9.	Oral Stylistic Devices in Two Thousand Seasons.	Chukwueloka, Christian Chukwuloo	53-57
10.	A Comparative Study on Ese and Ukom Dance Music of Ngwa and Mbaise People of Igbo South: An Evaluative Approach.	Okoro, Justice C.	58-61
11.	Democracy and Political Ideology in Cyprian Ekwensi's ISKA	Uchenna F. Akalonu	62-66
12.	The State of Hausa Teaching in Adamawa State of Nigeria.	Barka, Moh'd H, Aliyu Ibrahim and Aliyu Kachalla, A.	67-70
13.	La Traduction Judidique Igbo Et Le Development De La Democrate Au Nigeria.	Iwunze Emeka Innocent	71-77