

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION

Volume 1, Number 1, 2009

S/No.	Contents	Author(s)	Pages
1.	The Religious Values of Egbegun ( Warrior Group) Initiation Rites in Omuo-Ekiti of South Western Nigeria.	Jegede, Gabriel Gbenga	1-7
2.	Education Within a Pluralistic Society: the Challenges of National Education in the Nigerian Context.	Gilbert N. Alaribe	8-14
3.	Philosophy, Culture and Development in Africa.	Osiyemi, Emmanuel Sunday	15-18
4.	Authority and liberty as key to Sustainable Development.	Arua Kevin C.	19-25
5.	Cultural Globalization, the last Onslaught on African Personality: The Igbo Example.	Okoro Kingley N.	26-38
6.	Islamism and the Contemporary Sharia Application: Implications for Socio-Politico-Economic Development in Nigeria.	Asogwa Nicholas Uchechukwu	39-46
7.	The Theory and Practice of Secrecy in Okonko and Ogoni Societies.	Patrick Uchenna Nwosu	47-53
8.	Ethical And Philosophical Perspective In Government Business And Society: The Nigerian Experience.	Dakare Olamitunji and B. E. A. Oghojafor	54-60
9.	Induction and the African Experience.	Felix Ayemere Airoboman	61-65
10.	The Imperative of Creative Education in Nigeria: Towards a Philosophy of Participation of Africa in a Globalized World.	Okpanachi Anthony Idoko	66-71
11.	Dietrich Binhoeffer's Religionless Christianity: Alternative Faith for Nigerian in the 21 st Century.	Okoro, Kingley. N.	72-85
12.	Discussing the Infallibility of Science.	Emina Kemi A.	86-90
13.	Sexuality From The Yoruba Perspective: A Lesson for Moral Decadence in Nigerian Society.	Ogunleye, A. Richard	91-96
14.	The Impact of Arabic on the linguistic and Cultural Life of Yoruba People	F. O. Jamiu	97-103
15.	Evangelization and the Electronic Media in Contemporary Nigeria: Future Impact on Christianity.	Eucharua N. Nwagbara	104-110

Instruction to Authors
Subscription Rate